

A human on a bicycle is more efficient in calories expended per kilo and per kilometre than a train, truck, airplane, boat, car or motorcycle.